The church benevolence committee may provide short-term (emergency) assistance and longer-term aid to ensure that recipients have the basic necessities such as food, clothing, housing, transportation, and medical assistance (including psychological counseling). The preferred method of providing assistance will be to pay the applicant's needs directly to a business provider. Assistance may also be provided in the form of cash grants or vouchers for goods or services. The type of aid that is appropriate depends on the individual's needs and available resources. Available assistance may vary based on funding, need, season, and more.
